Schloss Reichenau with guest of honour Carl Djerassi and the Vienna Film Academy

Tuesday, 13 August 2013

Lecture: “Scandal 1913” by Martin Eybl, Vienna/mdw

One of Martin Eybl’s research focuses is the “music theory and aesthetics of the early 20th century”. He has devoted close study to the relationship between so-called “new music” and music critics, and he has published a book dealing with the famous “scandals” touched off by Schönberg’s concerts.

Panel discussion: “Scandal and Art”

Chair: Cornelia Szabó-Knotik, Vienna,

Head of the Institute of Analysis, Theory and Music History of the mdw Artists, researchers and journalists look into the political, societal and commercial meanings and dynamics of scandals in a general way.

Workshop:

“Le Nozze di Figaro – a scandalous invitation to dance?!”

with Christian Glanz, Vienna/mdw

This workshop mainly addresses active participants of isaOperaVienna, for which reason it is to take place in Vienna.

This opera’s deviations from codes, schemes and norms will be a topic, as will aspects of dramaturgy including genderrelevant approaches.

Presentation of short films from the Vienna Film Academy and open discussion

Schloss Reichenau, 7:30 pm

“The Other from Within”: Roma Music The scandal of representation of Roma and their music

Panel Statements and –Discussion with international experts from Romania, Austria and Slovenia

The music of the Roma people is an important topic in European classical music, though it is mostly represented in a stereotypical manner. We wish to discuss how Roma music has been represented by outsiders as well as various modes of self-representation. This discussion should serve as inspiration to rethink stereotypes and prejudices.

Chair: Ursula Hemetek, Vienna,
Head of the Institute of Folk Music Research and Ethnomusicology of the mdw

Introduction to the Vienna Gypsy Music School

Workshop on Roma Song and Dance

This workshop invites participants of isa13 to explore a musical world that is totally different from that of European classical music.

Take the plunge and broaden your horizon!

● 23rd International Summer Academy

isaMasterClass is the musical summer camp of the mdw – University of Music and Performing Arts Vienna. Each year, more than 200 participants from 40 different nations receive training geared to highly advanced and talented musicians at this programme held in Austria's Semmering region.

isaFestival presents the highlights from 14 days of intensive artistic work in 50 concerts! Their main focus is encompassed by the two series "International Laureates" and "Open Chamber Music", which feature award winning ensembles and young stars such as the Apollon Musagète, the Arcadia Quartet, Trio Gaspard, Meta4, Minetti Quartet, Quatuor Zaide, Harriet Krijgh and Victor Julien-Lafarriere, as well as prominent names like Shmuel Ashkenasi, Peter Frankl, Sharon Kam, Dora Schwarzberg and the Artis Quartet.

isaOperaVienna, the programme for vocalists, will for the first time be embedded in productions of the mdw's Institute for Voice and Musical Theatre (Mozart's "Le nozze di Figaro" and Strauß's "Die Fledermaus") at the famous Schönbrunn Palace Theatre, where Haydn and Mozart performed!

isaScience brings together the scholarly branches of mdw and their guests from all over the world with the young artists of isa for a mutually enriching exchange of ideas. The intention is for isaScience to become a forum for the scholarly community that takes place simultaneously with and is linked to the artistic activities of isaMasterClasses.

isaAsiaVienna Viennese Traditions – this special intensive programme for music students from Asia offers master classes with renowned instructors from the mdw – University of Music and Performing Arts Vienna.
